The span of items in the Princeton Memorabilia Collection is quite broad, encompassing everything from jewelry to trophies to hats to pieces of campus buildings, past and present. Reunion-related memorabilia constitutes a large portion of the collection in keeping with the widespread support that Princeton Reunions enjoy. While there are a few items from the 18th century, such as a silver button engraved with "V 1782," worn by Richard N. Venable '82 at his graduation, most of the items in the collection date from the second half of the 19th century to the present.

Items of note include: a piece of the banister from Reunion Hall; a part of the exterior wall of Marquand Chapel; pieces of Nassau Hall, including a bell clapper; hatbands, ties, pins, buttons, or other items from almost every twentieth-century reunion class; a complete set of 1930 Wedgwood plates depicting campus buildings; pieces of goalposts from various football games; Whig and Clio medals; carved walking canes from the 19th century; the discus Robert Garrett threw to win a gold medal at the first modern (1896) Olympics; and nineteenth century clay pipes from the origins of the Cannon Green exercises.

The clothing group includes handkerchiefs, hatbands, and neckties. Dishware includes plates, mugs, beer cans, and bottles, as well as ashtrays, cigarette cases, and class day pipes. The grounds and building memorabilia contains pieces of buildings, keys, and bells. (Some of the larger silver cups listed on the item list are stored in the vault. These are designated with a V in the box category.) The Medals series contains medals. The Pins series consists of patches, and pins, ribbons. The Stamps Series includes stamps, pins, a plaque, and an umbrella. The Miscellaneous series includes jewelry, canes and fans. (Some memorabilia items are on permanent display at Mudd Library and the location of these is noted in the box category.) Some items are stored in a box from a different series simply because of size limitations. For instance, a metal tobacco sign is stored in the Sports series, Sports, simply because it did not fit in any of the tobacco boxes.

The collection is arranged by broad category as follows: 250th Anniversary; Awards; Clothing; Dishware; Grounds and Buildings; Banners and Pennants; Embossers; Medals; Miscellaneous; Pins and Ribbons; Sports; Stamps; and Tobacco Within each grouping, materials are arranged by type of item, for the most part. For example, all mugs are placed together within the Dishware group.
