The Campus Life series contains photographs documenting aspects of life as experienced by students, faculty, and staff at Princeton University. The photographs date from the late 1850s to the present, with the bulk dating from the 1870s to the 1960s. The series is divided into four major sections: Academic, Administrative; Social and Residential Life; and General. This organization is repeated in the fifth section, Campus Life Additions. Any photograph added to the collection later then the 1990s may appear in Additions.

This is an unprocessed collection and remains in its original arrangement.
