The Campus Life series contains photographs documenting aspects of life as experienced by students, faculty, and staff at Princeton University. The photographs date from the late 1850s to the present, with the bulk dating from the 1870s to the 1960s. The series is divided into four major sections: Academic, Administrative; Social and Residential Life; and General. This organization is repeated in the fifth section, Campus Life Additions. Any photograph added to the collection later then the 1990s may appear in Additions.

This is an unprocessed collection and remains in its original arrangement.

Series 5: Campus Life Additions, 1865-2015

Size: Digital Files: 1

Size: Digital Files: 1

Description: The Campus Life Additions series consists of photographs that have been added to the collection since the time of its original processing in the mid-1990s.

Arrangement: Photographs in the Campus Life Additions series have been grouped by topic. Whenever possible, efforts have been made to match the arrangement of the Additions to that of the original collection.
