Biography/History

Princeton University Players (PUP) was formed in 1986 as the only all student-run musical theatre organization on campus, with six productions each season.

From 1948-1960, another student theatre organization, University Players, was active at Princeton, but bears no relation to PUP.

Description

The Princeton University Players (PUP) Records consists of programs and posters from 1986-2012, as well as the script from their first production, "One Fine Day" by Suzannah Bex Wilson ’89.

Arrangement

Folders are arranged in chronological order within their boxes.
