Biography/History

Robert Garrett (1875-1961) was an American banker and philanthropist. Garrett (Princeton Class of 1897) was also an Olympic athlete, Princeton Charter Trustee, and a collector.

Description

This collection contains 23 manuscripts written in the Syriac alphabet, a writing system primarily used to write the Syriac language. Contents include partial copies and fragments of the Bible (Peshitta), Biblical commentaries, prayer books, collections of magical charms, and other religious texts.

Arrangement

Organized numerically. The original collection contained 15 manuscripts, one of which (no. 12) was transferred to the Princeton Papyri Collection. Three manuscripts which were shelved as Garrett Garshuni (Arabic written in Syriac script) were added to the collection in 2011 as nos. 16-18. Six manuscripts which had been donated by Garrett as part of the Islamic Manuscripts, Littman series, were added in 2011 as nos. 19-24.

Access and Use

Access

Restricted. Consult curator for access.

Restrictions on Use and Copyright Information

Single photocopies may be made for research purposes. No further photoduplication of copies of material in the collection can be made when Princeton University Library does not own the original. Permission to publish material from the collection must be requested from the Associate University Librarian for Rare Books and Special Collections. The library has no information on the status of literary rights in the collection and researchers are responsible for determining any questions of copyright.

Acquisition and Appraisal
