T. S. (Thomas Stanley) Matthews (1901-1991), Princeton Class of 1922, was an author and editor of Time magazine. The son of a New Jersey bishop and Proctor & Gamble heiress, Matthews earned a bachelor's degree from Princeton in 1922 and New College at Oxford in 1924. He joined the staff of the New Republic in 1925 and Time's staff in 1929 as book editor. He moved up to assistant managing editor, managing editor, and finally editor in 1949. Especially in his capacity as managing editor, Matthews raised the journalistic and writing standards of the magazine, and was known for his harsh criticism.

Following disagreements with senior management over the 1952 presidential election, Matthews left Time and moved to England to study the possibility of starting a British version of the magazine. Following this project's cancellation, he remained in Britain to write. Among his numerous books and poetry are an autobiography and a book on T. S. Eliot, his literary hero. He was married three times -- to Juliana Stevens Cuyler, Martha Gellhorn, and Pamela Peniakoff.

The collection contains writings, notebooks, correspondence, files from Time magazine, subject files, legal and financial correspondence, photographs, printed material of T. S. Matthews, dating from 1910 to 1991; there also are some writings of others about him. Included is a series of datebooks for every year from 1950 to his 1991 death, recording his appointments and notes, as well as journals and dream diaries. The files from Time date from the 1940s to the 1950s, and consist of internal correspondence and memoranda, as well as his notes on the possible Time-in-Britain project. Included in the subject files are Matthews' research notes on T. S. Eliot, his literary hero and the subject of his book Great Tom: Notes Towards the Definition of T. S. Eliot. Notable correspondents include John Aldridge, Whittaker Chambers, T. S. Eliot, Valerie Eliot, Robert Graves, Eleanor Green, Laura (Riding) Jackson, Schuyler Jackson, Len Lye, Laurie Lee, William Piel, Jr., V. S. Pritchett, Lyman Spitzer, and Adlai Stevenson.

Collection is open for research use.

Single photocopies may be made for research purposes. No further photoduplication of copies of material in the collection can be made when Princeton University Library does not own the original. Permission to publish material from the collection must be requested from the Associate University Librarian for Rare Books and Special Collections. The library has no information on the status of literary rights in the collection and researchers are responsible for determining any questions of copyright.
